d'Arenberg - McLaren Vale, South Australia Chester Osborn

d'Arenberg is one of the undisputed kings of Australian Shiraz and other Rhone varieties that have historically defined the region. A century on, under the stewardship of fourth generation winemaker Chester Osborn, in terms of winemaking, not much has changed—all the wines are basket-pressed, the reds foot-trodden during fermentation; everything is done in small batches, leading to an impressive array of bottlings every year. From the Stump Jumps through to the highly-regarded Icons, these wines offer value, individuality and a true taste of McLaren Vale.

A benchmark Australian winery founded in 1970 by Sydney trio Tony Albert, John Beeston and Australia's leading wine critic, James Halliday, Brokenwood evolved from a weekend venture into one of Australia's most reputable wine labels and winemakers, Iain Riggs, who has been with the winery since 1982. Brokenwood is known for producing some of Australia's most long-lived Semillons as well as one of the nation's most iconic single vineyard wines, the Graveyard Shiraz, which Australia's leading auction house, Langton's, lists among the top twenty-five in the country.

Frisk Prickly - Alpine Valleys, Victoria

A team of young gun Australian winemakers and growers couldn't help but ponder the 'Riesling Revolution' as they worked their magic with some of the finest fruit in the downright cold-climate of Victoria's Alpine Valleys. Seeing friends slurp down their juice almost any time of the day (brunch-time drinkers were indebted to its low 9% alcohol), alone or with one of their damn hot Thai curries, piqued the thought that a few outside their little hamlet might be equally enamored by it.

Giant Steps - Yarra Valley, Victoria Phil Sexton and Steve Flamsteed

When John Coltrane split with Miles Davis he wasted little time releasing his visionary Giant Steps album. Phil Sexton was inspired by the album and Coltrane's foresight. When Sexton sold his Devil's Lair vineyard in Margaret River to relocate and replant in the Yarra Valley, he named his winery in Coltrane's honor. Sexton chose Yarra Valley because of his admiration for the long aging and fine boned wines produced by the new generation of wine growers reestablishing this historic wine region.

Jasper Hill - Heathcote, Victoria Ron Laughton

Jasper Hill, established in 1975 by the Laughton family, produces some of Australia's most compelling Shirazes. Situated on ancient Cambrian soils in Victoria's Heathcote region, the dry-farmed, biodynamic vineyards have been largely responsible for establishing the area as one of Australia's greatest red wine regions. It is the Laughtons' commitment to low yields, dry farming and non-interventionist, biodynamic viticulture that place Jasper Hill among Australia's premier producers.

Plantagenet Wines - Great Southern, Western Australia Luke Eckersley

An historic producer, Plantagenet Wines was the first winery to be established in the rugged Great Southern wine region. Named after the local Shire of Plantagenet, the winery was founded in 1968 when English immigrant Tony Smith planted vines on his Mount Barker property. These early wines impressed with their elegance and finesse, and Plantagenet has gone on to become a driving force in establishing this area as a distinctive, quality-focused Australian wine region.

What they do take seriously is their winemaking, and it shows with Shoofly's collection of robust wines crafted from hand-selected vineyard sites. These are wines that show Australia at its best.

Yeringberg - Yarra Valley, Victoria Sandra de Pury

Celebrating more than 150 years and five generations strong. A jewel of a vineyard replanted in 1969 on the site of what was one of Australia's most famous vineyards of the nineteenth century. Older vintages of the cabernet have had critics such as Hugh Johnson draw comparisons to Chateau Lafite! The tradition continues with the great-granddaughter, Sandra de Pury, of the founder now producing perfectly poised wines from extremely low yielding vines.

FRANCE

Champagne Collet - Aj, France Sebastien Walasiak

A founding member of COGEVI, Champagne Collet's history harkens back to being at the center of the Revolt Champenoise that began in 1911 and was the impetus for declaring Champagne an appellation. Collet is one of the few champagne houses to have access 600+ acres of Grand Cru and Premier Cru vineyards. And with gastronomy in mind Sebastien Walasiak selects fruit from these vineyards based on power and concentration. Collet's image reflects the Art Deco period that unleashed a creative wave and was the perfect accompaniment to the joy and abandon of life in the 1920s.

Clos Cantenac - Saint-Emilion, France Charlotte Krajewski

Clos Cantenac is a small but seductive 15 acre property with carefully planted vines on an exceptional "terroir" close to the prehistoric "Megalith de Pierrefitte." This enchanting Saint-Emilion vineyard and ancient 200-year-old winery was purchased in January 2007 by Martin Krajewski along with his great friend and wine enthusiast Marcus Le Grice from New Zealand. Clos Cantenac proudly respects both the history and culture of the region to traditionally craft these fine Grand Cru wines.

Domaine de Nizas - Languedoc, France Nathalie Arnaud-Bernard

Located near the medieval village of Pézenas in the heart of the Languedoc region, Domaine de Nizas' terroir is the unique mosaic of three soil types. Limestone Clay (Marne Calcaire) are white soils that make powerful wines. The Basalt soils are volcanic based, unique within the Languedoc region, and rare throughout the world. River gravel (Villafranchien) is a blend of river pebbles and red clay. It is the soil type often found in the Chateaufort du Pape area of the Southern Rhone Valley.

NEW ZEALAND

Greywacke - Marlborough, New Zealand Kevin Judd

One of Marlborough's pioneering winemakers, Kevin Judd's appreciable career is intrinsically linked with the global path of New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc. Sourcing prime fruit from mature vineyards within the central Wairau and Southern Valleys, Kevin uses low-intervention winemaking to create wines hallmarked by their concentration, elegance and individuality. Alongside winemaking, Kevin's talent for photography has seen his evocative images appear in countless publications worldwide, and inevitably, take pride of place on the labels of his solo winemaking venture — the synthesis of his dual passions.

Chapter 24 - Willamette Valley, Oregon Louis-Michel Liger-Belair

Chapter 24 Vineyards was named after the last chapter of Homer's epic poem, The Odyssey. A geologist from Chile and a vigneron from Vosne-Romanée explore Willamette Valley's soils revealing new facets of the region's terroir in pursuit of some of Oregon's most quietly expressive and seamless Pinot Noirs. Fruit from more than 50 vineyard sites compose wines for three signature cuvées designated as either 'Fire' (volcanic soils), 'Flood' (sedimentary soils) or the best lots from either soil type selected for 'The Last Chapter,' Chapter 24's top bottling.

Stickybeak - Napa Valley and Sonoma County, California Bill Nancarrow

Led by winemaker Bill Nancarrow, the Stickybeak team scoured the hills of Napa, trekked the remote corners of Anderson Valley, paddled the Russian River and shivered in the Sonoma Coast fog to find vineyards that have that wonderful 'this is it' character - where the grape and land go hand in hand together. Singing stridently of their origins, they deliver a wallop in the flavor department; not heavy and overdone, but simply long, lingering and wonderfully focused.
