

2017 GREG NORMAN ESTATES PASO ROBLES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

REGION: Paso Robles, California
VARIETALS: Cabernet Sauvignon
MATURATION: Seasoned French and American oak
ANALYSIS: 13.5% alc/vol | 6.5 g/L TA | 3.58 pH

REGION: Paso Robles is located between San Francisco and Los Angeles along California's Central Coast. The region enjoys a greater day-to-night temperature swing than any other major appellation in California. With many distinct microclimates, more than 45 different soil types and a long growing season Paso Robles is well suited to producing a range of premium wines, in particular structured and juicy Cabernets.

WINEMAKING: After a gentle destemming process, the fruit was fermented for up to ten days in stainless-steel, open-top tanks and pumped over three times a day. The dry wine was then pressed off skins and transferred to seasoned French and American oak to mature before blending the individual Cabernet Sauvignon lots and bottling.

TASTING NOTES: The wine shows bright and inviting aromas of boysenberry, fresh blackberry, plum and all-spice notes. The palate is rich and full-bodied with layers of juicy fruit flavors complemented by vanilla, tobacco leaf and cinnamon spice. Silky smooth tannins and a refreshing line of acidity bring structure and balance to this approachable and versatile Cabernet Sauvignon.
