

2016 GREYWACKE PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

95 pts/TOP 100 WINES OF NEW ZEALAND 2018 – #33 “Impressive richness and concentration of brambleberry and black-cherry aromas and flavors here. The palate unfurls plenty of spicy and succulent fruit flesh with tannins that are nicely wrapped around the finish. This is all class.”

92 pts “Bright and lively in texture and flavor, with hints of blueberry and strawberry lifted by subtle earthiness and just a touch of oak, this is a Pinot Noir made to be enjoyed with a meal. While it will certainly go nicely with medium hearty foods (lamb chops, lentils, salmon), I had it recently with a somewhat more delicate grilled striped bass, which was a luscious pairing indeed.”

91 pts “A bit less intense than the 2015, the 2016 Pinot Noir is nevertheless a lovely drink. A blend of fruit from primarily the Brancott and Omaka Valleys, it shows earthy, dark-fruited notes of black cherries and plums. It’s medium to full-bodied, plush and velvety on the palate, with a long, vibrant finish.”
