

2015 LEEUWIN ESTATE ART SERIES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

95 pts/TOP 100 WINES OF 2019 “There’s sunglow to this wine’s flavors, as if mirroring the cool, sunny autumn days in Margaret River that extended the growing season in 2015. There’s nothing dimpled about the fruit; it’s just warm and plump, with tannins you can breathe and a palpable bristle of energy. The luscious blackberry fruit floods the crunchy acidity that keeps the wine bright and zesty. Though the wine spent 22 months in French oak, the barrel influence is apparent only in its textural harmony and structural completion. Set for long aging.”

94 pts “It puts on a good show of cedar wood, blackcurrant, mulberry and bay leaf-like flavor. It’s medium in weight and well-balanced overall, and looks set to mature well into the medium term and beyond. Not a hair out of place.”

92 pts “A vibrant, fragrant and elegant expression of Margaret River Cabernet, with details of mint, bay leaf and anise seed to the polished cherry and pomegranate flavors at the core. Juicy, featuring a note of gunpowder tea on the velvety finish.”

92 pts “Cigar box, vanilla, sage and bay leaf notes may be found on the nose of the 2015 Art Series Cabernet Sauvignon. It’s intensely flavored, medium to full-bodied and firmly structured but ripe, with fine-grained tannins and a long, mouthwatering finish.”
