

2017 JOHN DUVAL WINES ANNEXUS MATARO

Review Summary

90 pts “This small batch Mourvèdre from renowned Barossa winemaker John Duval is more austere than the previous vintage. It requires plenty of swirling in glass before unveiling its true characters, namely cherry, red currant, licorice, spice and stony earthy undertones. Duval’s winemaking signature is all over the palate. A powerful grip of textured tannins support red fruit, spice and earth.”

Christina Pickard
Wine Enthusiast
January 2020