

2017 KILIKANOON KILLERMAN'S RUN GRENACHE SHIRAZ MATARO

Review Summary

94 pts “Oh so savory with a touch of wildness about it. May not be everyone’s cup of GSM but it has its good points such as that smoked meaty gameness, prune, red licorice and stewed plums on the nose, followed by super smooth presence in the mouth. Grenache makes the running and provides a distinctive walk on the wild side.”

92 pts “There’s a rich and attractive array of ripe raspberries and red plums here that offers a succulent and attractively fresh raspberry thread on the palate.”

90 pts “Juicy black cherry, plum and raspberry flavors are set against a velvety frame, with details of black tea, cigar box and crushed pine needle. Shows a terrific sense of harmony and seamlessness on the finish. Grenache, Shiraz and Mataro.”

90 pts “With its deep red color tinged with purple and spicy, earthy aromas laced with cloves and cherry eau-de-vie and a hint of blackberry jam, this is fruit-sweet and lush in the mouth, with fleshy texture and soft tannins. Top value for money.”

89 pts/Best Buy “Catch this heady wine while it’s young and powerful, matching its rich flavors of black-cherry syrup and baked strawberry to roast lamb. The tannins hold a cumin-and-coriander spice that will meld well with the meat.”
