

2017 CHAPTER 24 FIRE + FLOOD THE FLOOD

Review Summary

92 pts “Pairs backbone with polish, offering rose petal, raspberry and stony mineral accents that slowly unfurl toward refined tannins.”

92 pts “Pale to medium ruby, the 2017 Pinot Noir The Flood opens with inviting aromas of cranberry jelly, smoked meats, baked blackberries, woodsmoke and nuances of tangerine and sweet red berries. The palate is medium-bodied and über silky with bitters-laced fruits, a finely grained frame and juicy acidity to lift the finish.”

92 pts “A ripe, dark-fruited style with aromas of spiced plums, dark cherries and currants, as well as spicy oak. The palate has a succulent feel with espresso-laced dark cherries holding center stage.”

91 pts “The texture and detail elevate this wine... Tones of black cherry, cola and a dusting of ash anchor the palate, with a dash of cold-brewed coffee through the finish.”
