Maison L'Envoyé

Highlights from the June 2014 issue of Wine Spectator

In addition to two impressive scores, Wine Spectator has awarded Maison L'Envoyé the coveted 'Highly Recommended' distinction in the June 2014 issue's Savvy Shopper column with the 2012 Attaché Pinot Noir.

Savvy Shopper

94pts/Highly Recommended

Maison L'Envoyé Pinot Noir The Attaché 2012, Willamette Valley ($40)

"This red is focused, complex and expressive, with lively blackberry, floral and white pepper flavors that unfurl in layers, persisting with finesse against an underlying mineral note as the finish revs up. Complex and expressive. Drink now through 2022. 500 cases made." – H.S.

92pts

Maison L'Envoyé Pinot Noir Two Messengers 2012, Willamette Valley ($30)

"Crisp, focused and expressive, broadening out on the finish into a panoply of gorgeous black fruit, with meaty and spicy notes that sing in harmony as the finish lingers deftly. Drink now through 2022. 2,000 cases made." – H.S.
