

2008 KILIKANOON MORT'S RESERVE RIESLING

Review Summary

95 pts - Best of the Best by Variety “A beautiful riesling, with citrus blossom aromas, then a pure palate, the lime and lemon fruit shimmering all the way through to the lingering finish.”

James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion
2010

92 pts “Heady aromas of bitter lemon, lime zest, quinine and anise, with a strong mineral undertone. Lush Meyer lemon, peach skin and herb flavors stain the palate, with bitter pear skin and grapefruit pith notes adding cut. Leaves smoky mineral and citrus qualities behind on the strikingly long, sappy finish. This could handle rich foods with ease.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2009

91 pts “The 2008 Watervale Riesling Mort's Reserve is light straw-colored with a superb nose of baking spices, spring flowers, mineral, and citrus. Rich and full-flavored on the palate with excellent focus, this tasty Riesling will evolve for several years and offer prime drinking from 2010 to 2018.”

Jay Miller, Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate
February 2009, Issue 181

88 pts “Light and polished, with spicy green berry and pineapple flavors, lingering well.”

Harvey Steiman, Wine Spectator Online
2009

87 pts “Starts off tighter and less giving than the regular Mort's Block, only gradually displaying its greater potential longevity. Offers crushed stone and lime notes, medium body and clean green apple and citrus finish right now, but expect it to develop petrol, honey and toast notes within the next several years; drink now – 2017.”

Joe Czerwinski, Wine Enthusiast
September 2010

WINE OF THE YEAR “...stunningly pure Watervale expression...”
