Review Summary

89 pts “Water-white; crisp, fresh, unembroidered wine; mineral, herb and a touch of tropical fruit.”

James Halliday

89 pts “The 2007 The Broken Fishplate Sauvignon Blanc exhibits gooseberry and passion fruit aromas that jump from the glass. Ripe, balanced, and flavorful, it can be enjoyed with a variety of seafood courses over the next 1-2 years.”

August 2006, Issue 178 “Value Wines”

87(+?) pts “Green-straw. Lime skin, anise and dusty minerals on the nose, plus a hint of baby aspirin. Citrus and talc flavors are gripping and refreshingly dry but a bit clipped. Clean, energetic lime and grapefruit flavors dominate the brisk finish. Is this just wound up today?”
