

2007 d'ARENBERG THE STUMP JUMP WHITE Review Summary

90 pts “An all-in-for-the-ride riesling, sauvignon blanc, marsanne, viognier and chardonnay blend, the riesling offers its line though the other varieties add body and complexity for increased interest.”

Tony Love, The Advertiser

89 pts “Light yellow. A complex bouquet suggests peach, pear, curry powder and mustard seed. Juicy orchard and pit fruit flavors offer impressive depth and clarity for a wine at this price point, with juicy acidity providing lift and cut. Finishes with very good sappy persistence and firm minerality. Bats above its station in complexity but I wonder if the normal white wine customer for this price point really wants something more simple. “

Josh Raynolds, Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
Sept/Oct 2008

88 pts – TOP 100 BEST BUYS OF 2009

“It’s almost two-thirds Riesling, which gives the wine its tight focus and strong mineral and citrus overtones, but there’s also Sauvignon Blanc, Marsanne, Viognier and Chardonnay in the mix, giving it layers of fruity complexity. Awfully good for the price.”

Wine Enthusiast
November 2009

87 pts – TOP VALUES

Harvey Steiman’s Recommended Australian Whites
Nov 30, 2008

87 pts - TOP 125 NEW WORLD VALUES UNDER $20 “Light and fragrant, this is soft in texture, with pretty green apple and floral aromas and flavors, finishing with remarkable unity for a kitchen-sink blend. Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc, Marsanne, Viognier and Chardonnay.”

Harvey Steiman, Wine Spectator,
April 30, 2009

87 pts “Clean and crisp with the riesling playing the major role; hints of citrus and cleansing acidity on the finish.”

James Halliday
2009 Australian Wine Companion

88 pts “The nose offers up minerals, pit fruits and citrus leading to a crisp, refreshing, dry, fruit-filled mid-palate. It has surprising length for its humble price.”

Jay Miller, Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
August 2008

