

2012 BROKENWOOD HUNTER VALLEY SEMILLON

BROKENWOOD
AUSTRALIAN CRAFT AT ITS FINEST

Review Summary

92 pts “Pale quartz; operates in strict compliance with the 'ain't broke, don't fix it' nostrum, its fragrant bouquet and lively palate with hallmark lemon/lemongrass/citrus lengthened by lively acidity.”

91 pts “Bright straw. Lively, pungent scents of lime zest, quinine and jalapeno, with a subtle floral nuance. Racy, firm and crisp in the mouth, with deeper suggestions of pear and fig and a waxy note. Closes dry and precise, with excellent clarity and lingering spiciness. This wine is destined for a long, slow evolution and represents remarkable value.”

88 pts “The 2012 Semillon reveals expressive, forward notes of green apples and fresh pears with nuances of lemon peel, grass and chalk. The light-bodied palate offers plenty of flavors, and while it's a typically taut style, it is drinking beautifully now, with a racy acid line to carry the apple and herbal flavors to a long finish. Drink it now through 2017+.”

“The 2012 was a great example of how outrageously pert and nervy young Hunter Valley truly is. It was full of searingly focused lemon and white grapefruit with beach grass touches and a rich round mouthfeel.”
