

2010 YERINGBERG CABERNET BLEND

Review Summary

96 pts “The full Bordeaux blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, merlot, malbec and petit verdot; the hue is good, the wine lives up to its promise, with a quite lovely display of black and redcurrant fruit supported by silky tannins and quality oak; it has achieved all this with only 13% alcohol, and the wine will live for decades.”

94 pts “Deep garnet-purple in color and loaded with aromas of warm black currants, black plums and black cherries with hints of cedar, pencil lead and baking spices, the medium to full-bodied 2010 Yeringberg is rich and concentrated with medium-firm grainy tannins and a spicy, long finish.”

93 pts “Dark purple. A heady bouquet evokes candied dark berries, cola and vanilla, with a powerful floral quality building with air. Sappy, penetrating black raspberry and bitter cherry flavors show impressive depth and energy, with notes of saffron and licorice in the background. Finishes sweet and very long, with resonating spiciness and florality.”

91+ pts “Blended of 62% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Cabernet Franc, 11% Merlot, 10% Malbec and 7% Petit Verdot, the 2010 Yeringberg was aged in French barriques, 35% new, for 21 months. It presents a medium to deep garnet-purple color and aromas of crushed black currants, warm blackberries and cranberries with hints of violets, cloves, black olives and cedar plus an underlying earthy whiff. Medium-bodied, it gives mouth-filling black berry and baking spice flavors with a touch of savory / meatiness supported by a medium level of fine grained tannins and crisp acidity. It finishes with a good persistence of cloves and earthy flavors. Approachable now, it should cellar to 2020+.”
