

2012 SHOOFLY
PINOT NOIR
Review Summary

93 pts “Excellent, deep and clear, red-purple; the cherry/spice aromas of the bouquet are followed by a strongly structured palate, its black cherry and plum fruit supported by savory/forestry tannin-derived nuances. Amazing price - will repay cellaring if you can keep your hands off it.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2014

90 pts “Is there really Pinot this good for this price? Roses, cherries, dried strawberries, and smoke waft up from the glass. The silky texture enfolds cherries, rhubarb, allspice, and hints of smoke from a distant hardwood fire. Tarter fruits come through on the mid-palate and linger for quite a long time. Drink with pork chops with cherry sauce. Highly Recommended.”

David Honig
PalatePress.com
December 18, 2013

90 pts “Bright red. Fresh red berries, rose and allspice on the perfumed nose and in the mouth. Lithe and precise, with appealing sweetness that carries through the finish. Quite sexy, with upfront appeal but the balance to reward at least another three years or so of patience. This suave wine represents one of the best pinot values I've seen from anywhere in some time.”

Josh Reynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2013

“Australia's cool Yarra Valley provides the counterargument to an ocean of super-juicy anonymous Shiraz: distinctive Pinot Noirs like this crisp, spicy, light-bodied version.”

Ray Isle
Food & Wine
October 2013