

2005 KILIKANOON BLOCKS ROAD CABERNET

Review Summary

94 pts “A generously ripe blackcurrant and dark chocolate fruit melange; good supporting oak and tannins; quality in vineyard and winery inputs.”

James Halliday
2009 Wine Companion

89 pts “Sleek and appealing for its ripe blackberry and currant fruit, smoky, tarry overtones, and lively balance and transparency on the finish.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator, Great Australian Reds
October 15, 2008

87 pts “Deep ruby. Peppery red berry and cherry aromas are complicated by musky tobacco and underbrush. Light red fruit flavors are a bit tough, with firm tannins and a gentle finishing bitterness adding grip. Could use more flesh but offers easy, up-front appeal.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2008