

2010 LEEUWIN ESTATE SIBLINGS SHIRAZ

Review Summary

90 pts – BEST BUY “There’s a cool, oceanic feel to this shiraz, layered in scents of tart cherries, herbs and kelp. The tannins seem juicy, rising from flat black to become fully three-dimensional in their infusion of flavor and spice.”

Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits
October 2013

90 pts “Bright ruby. Cherry, blackberry and floral aromas and flavors are brightened by a note of cracked pepper. Juicy, focused and refreshingly tangy, with strong finishing cut and soft, harmonious tannins. In a graceful style, with no rough edges and real upfront appeal.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2013

89 pts “Bright mid-garnet; the bouquet offers spicy red fruits, with a little sage for complexity; the palate is medium-bodied with fresh gravelly tannins a feature.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2014

88 pts – Very Good “This dark ruby and slightly opaque Shiraz from the Margaret River opens with blueberry and cherry like bouquet with a hint of cassis. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied, balanced, and very approachable. The flavor profile is a mild plum with hints of red raspberry and gentle oak. The finish is dry and its moderate tannins linger for a bit. This Shiraz is friendly and would pair well with a beef burger with blue cheese and caramelized onions.”

88 pts “Earthy notes add to the red fruit flavors in this medium weight, open textured style, finishing with refinement.”
