

2011 d'ARENBERG THE STUMP JUMP RED

Review Summary

91 pts “Terrific value here. This blended red offers a wealth of ripe red and blue fruits, some light pepper and spice too. The palate’s supple, juicy and even, delivering a fine and smooth, juicy red berry style, nicely balanced, tangy to close. Immensely good value red.”

Nick Stock
Good Food Wine Guide
2013

89 pts – TOP 100 BEST BUY OF 2014 “A terrific value for current consumption, the 2011 Stump Jump GSM blends 46% Grenache, 39% Shiraz and 15% Mourvèdre into a plump yet firm wine that combines black cherry fruit with savory notes of chocolate, herbs and roasted meat. There’s even a touch of mocha on the long finish.”

Joe Czerwinski
Wine Enthusiast
October 2014

89 pts – Best Value “Fresh and crisp, with a distinct mineral note weaving through the juicy plum and spice flavors, lingering pleasantly on the refined finish. Grenache, Shiraz and Mourvèdre.”

Harvey Steiman
Wine Spectator
July 31, 2013

88 pts – BEST BUY “Light bodied, cool and brisk, this friendly blend emphasizes spice and game scents in a crisply tailored finish. Not at all jammy.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits
October 2013

88 pts “Mid-garnet; a bright and juicy medium bodied wine, showing spicy red fruits and enough structure of tannin and acidity to provide a little bit of fun and short term enjoyment.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
2014

88 pts “Vivid ruby. High-pitched, peppery aromas of redcurrant and cherry pit, with a smoky overtone. Bright and energetic on the palate, offering sharply focused red fruit, licorice and bitter chocolate flavors, plus a hint of candied rose. Closes with firm cut and good, spicy persistence, on a lingering note of anise.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar
July/August 2013

Top Value Winner #5

2013 People’s Voice Awards
Snooth.com

“Chester Osborne at d’Arenberg has a genius for dreaming up esoteric wine names (The Cenosilicaphobic Cat, anyone?), but his rich, peppery, and more directly named Stump Jump Red, a blend of Grenache, Shiraz and Mourvèdre, is as easy to like as it is to pronounce.”

Ray Isle
FoodandWine.com – 5 Affordable Grill-Friendly Red Wines
June 4, 2014

“Chester Osborne, the guiding force behind d’Arenberg, is one of Australia’s most innovative winemakers (and marketers, for that matter). This spicy blend focuses on the deep plum-cherry flavors that are a benchmark of McLaren Vale Grenache.”

Ray Isle
Eatocracy.CNN.com
September 23, 2013