Kevin Judd

2011 GREYWACKE PINOT NOIR

WINEMAKER: Kevin Judd
REGION: Marlborough, New Zealand
VARIETALS: Pinot Noir
MATURATION: 15 months in French oak (45% new)
ANALYSIS: 14.0% alc/vol | TA: 5.7 g/L | pH: 3.55

VITICULTURE:

All fruit was grown in Marlborough's Southern Valleys and principally sourced from the Yarrum Vineyard situated on the Brancott / Ben Morven ridge. Here, the wind-blown loess soils are comprised of clay-loams with varying degrees of gravel content. The various source blocks are cultivated to a mixture of Pinot Noir clones, predominantly the Dijon clones 115, 777 and 667, with smaller parcels of UCD5 and AM 10/5. The vineyards are all hillside plantings trained to two-cane VSP (vertical shoot positioning).

WINEMAKING:

The grapes were hand harvested and chilled overnight prior to hand sorting. Most of the fruit was then de-stemmed into open-top fermenters, the majority of fermentations with partial whole bunch inclusion. The fruit was allowed to soak on skins prior to the onset of indigenous yeast fermentation, then hand plunged daily by hand. After fermentation the wine was pressed, racked and filled to French oak barriques (45% new). All individual clones were aged in barrel separately for fifteen months, prior to blending.

TASTING NOTES:

A virtual compote loaded with black plums, boysenberries and redcurrants, lightly infused with cinnamon and cloves. An intensely perfumed Marlborough pinot with fruit sweetness, floral highlights and a distinct smoky fragrance. The full-flavored palate has dark fruit richness with great length and freshness – finishing with a hint of Middle Eastern spice.

ABOUT GREYWACKE:

One of Marlborough's pioneering winemakers, Kevin Judd's career is intrinsically linked with Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. Established in 2009, Judd's label Greywacke (pronounced "gray-wacky") is the fulfillment of a long-held dream. Named after New Zealand's prolific bedrock, Greywacke was originally adopted by Kevin and his wife Kimberley as the name for their first Marlborough vineyard in Rapaura, whose soils have an abundance of these river stones. Greywacke sources fruit from mature vineyards within Marlborough's central Wairau Plains and the Southern Valleys. Also an established professional photographer, Judd's home in the Otago Valley overlooking Marlborough's picturesque vineyards provides inspiration for both his passions.
