

2010 d'ARENBERG THE OTHER SIDE Review Summary

93 pts “Inky purple. Black and blue fruits on the intensely perfumed nose, with suave floral and incense notes adding complexity. Plush and expansive, with excellent depth and no rough edges to its cherry-cola and boysenberry flavors. Shows excellent clarity and power, finishing sweet, spicy and very long.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar

93 pts “Deep purple-black in color, the 2010 The Other Side Single Vineyard Shiraz offers pronounced cassis and licorice notes with underlying hints of asphalt, mocha, Brazil nut and dried Chinese plum. The palate has concentrated berry and spice flavors with an attractive, savory edge. The firm acid backbone gives a refreshing, herbal lift to the long finish.”

92 pts “The vines were planted in 1916 on the northern side of the family homestead, the soil a mix of clay, sand and loam on a base of limestone and clay. Deeply colored, it is as yet very confronting on the bouquet, then a blockbuster palate with strong black fruits which are more savory than any of the other wines in the group, and will be very long-lived.”

91 pts “Of all the various d’Arenberg Shiraz bottlings, this may be the silkiest in texture this vintage. It’s still a full-bodied wine, filled with savory, earthy notes of black olive and espresso, but the finish stands apart for its length and suaveness.”

Joe Czerwinski, Wine Enthusiast
March 2015

“Dark dark ruby color, almost ebony; piercing minerality and swingeing tannins; leather, briars and brambles; intense core of graphite, potpourri, violets and bitter chocolate; spiced and macerated red and black fruit, notes of black tea, vanilla and cloves; tremendous presence, tone and resonance. Exceptional.”
