

Wine Enthusiast

April 2015

89 pts/EDITORS' CHOICE Jovino Pinot Gris 2013

Well-defined, crisp and lightly peppery, this estate-grown Pinot Gris carries no hint of oak aging. Tart apple and pear fruit have just the right bite to sail into a sharp and satisfying finish.

89 pts/BEST BUY Wine by Joe Pinot Gris 2013

Tight and bright, this tasty wine hits the mineral button under tangy lemon flesh and rind. The tart fruit is refreshing, clear and clean through a driving finish.

88 pts Wine by Joe Pinot Blanc 2013

This wine is for acid lovers. Its tongue-tickling mix of grapefruit and green pineapple is refreshing and clean, with the juicy acidity that sends it directly into the oyster wine category.