

2012 YERINGBERG MARSANNE ROUSSANNE

Review Summary

96 pts – Best of Other White Blends 2015 “This 54/46% blend is all you could wish for, supple yet precise, with a lovely mix of honey, citrus, honeysuckle and acidity. Looks back to the great '81 and has a very long life ahead.”

95 pts “The aromas are very spicy, with some cracked pepper, moving into rich, full -flavored palate with ripe, soft, rounded flavor and shape. A top vintage of this wine, fuller and more overt than the 2011 –which is also very good.”

92 pts “With alluring peach and honeysuckle notes on the nose plus a bit of orange peel, jasmine and pears, the medium to full-bodied 2012 Marsanne Roussanne has a rich and silky texture in the mouth contrasted nicely by a crisp acid line through a long finish.”

91 pts “Light, bright yellow. Fresh melon and pear aromas are deepened by suggestions of honey and smoky lees. Spicy, focused and racy on the palate, which offers intense orchard fruit and citrus zest flavors and a hint of white pepper. Closes tangy and long, with resonating spiciness and a touch of bitter herbs.”
