

2011 d'ARENBERG THE NOBLE WRINKLED RIESLING

Review Summary

90 pts “Golden brown; plastered with trophies and gold medals, largely courtesy of Perth and Queensland Wine Shows, which tells its own tale, the one significant gold from the Melbourne Wine Show '12, others all '14, by which time the wine has passed into curio status, intense, sweet and sour.”

90 pts – Very Good+ “This burnt orange colored "Sticky" from d'Arenberg was well received by the panel. It opens with a fragrant orange marmalade bouquet with hints of honey, molasses, apricot, and raisins. On the palate, this wine is full bodied, rich and heavy. The flavor profile is a blend of molasses, honey and orange. We also detected some hints of golden raisins, apricot, and Brazil nuts. The finish is sweet and lasts for a while. The panel suggested pairing this nice dessert wine with macaroon or warm oatmeal cookies.”

90 pts “Pale amber-colored and scented of honeyed hot lemon drink, preserved peaches and orange marmalade with a whiff of frangipani, the palate on the 2011 Noble Wrinkled Riesling reveals a good amount of sweetness and relatively straightforward, dried stone fruit and preserved citrus flavors matched by crisp acidity and a long finish.”
