

2014 KILIKANNOON KILLERMAN'S RUN RIESLING

Review Summary

92 pts – Editors' Choice “Less effusive on the nose than the Mort’s Block, this boasts notes of tangerine zest and lemon. This dry, medium-bodied Riesling hints at riper fruit flavors yet stays resolutely citrusy through the long, electric finish.”

Joe Czerwinski, Wine Enthusiast
February 2017

91 pts – Best Buy “Earthy and austere, this is a dry white with playful tension to the flavors, a buzz of acidity stinging the scents of honeycomb and lime. Tight for now, this will develop richer lime flavors with five years in the cellar.”

Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2016

90 pts “Green-tinged straw. Aromas of fresh peach, melon, jasmine and ginger, with a hint of white pepper emerging slowly with air. Silky and open-knit, offering ripe yellow plum and honeydew flavors tightened by a jolt of lemon pith. Rich yet vibrant Riesling with strong closing bite and subtle lingering notes of pit fruits and flowers.”

Josh Reynolds, Vinous
March 2016

90 pts “Flowery apple and citrus blossom aromas; attractive fresh Riesling, crisp and well-balanced, with lime and lemon fruit flavors. Good now, better in a few years.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2016

90 pts “The 2014 Killerman’s Run Riesling begins with aromas of white pepper, lemon juice, apples and, aniseed then moves to an open and approachable palate that has wonderfully crisp acidity and very good fruit intensity. It finishes long and zesty.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
July 2015