

2013 KILIKANOON BLOCKS ROAD CABERNET

Review Summary

93 pts “The tannins... have now largely resolved themselves... there is no question about the future of the wine, nor its abundant varietal fruits.”

James Halliday

91 pts “Parts of Clare Valley are ideal for Cabernet Sauvignon, illustrated by this reasonably priced bottling. Mint and cassis show remarkable purity on the nose, while the palate is properly restrained without being hard or austere.”

Joe Czerwinski

91 pts “Bright violet color. Spicy blackberry and boysenberry aromas are complicated by suggestions of black pepper, cedary oak and smoky minerals. Fresh dark berry and bitter cherry flavors are sweetened by suggestions of vanilla and mocha. Delivers plenty of upfront fruity appeal, with silky tannins adding shape and closing grip to the very long, sappy finish.”

91 pts “Medium deep garnet-purple in color, the 2013 Blocks Road Cabernet Sauvignon presents classis cassis, cloves and menthol aromas accented by eucalyptus, lavender and chocolate. Medium-bodied, fine and tightly-knit, the palate has a nice freshness, fine tannins and a well-poised finish.”

89 pts “Fresh herb notes of rosemary and bay leaf add a fragrant edge to the core of cassis flavors. The tannins are thick but polished, lingering with a hint of tobacco.”

The Best Value Cabernet Sauvignons – #6 “A relatively recent addition to Australia’s fine wine firmament, Kilikanoon was founded just 20 years ago. Since then it has impressed critics and consumers with its range of wines, and this is no exception.”
