

2014 d'ARENBERG d'ARRY'S ORIGINAL

Review Summary

93 pts “Nose of tree bark and black fruits, silky to start but then feral aspects creep in, robust finish and enjoyable.”

92 pts “A wine with a proud history, and one that took grenache out of obscurity for quality table winemaking (not fortified, where it came from). The style is one of juicy fruits, red from the grenache, black from the shiraz. The tannins are supple, and the wine is ready to go.”

91 pts “Aromas of blueberry, violet and stone follow through to a full body, firm and silky tannins and a flavorful finish.”

90+ pts “Medium garnet colored with a hint of purple, the 2014 D'Arry's Original Shiraz / Grenache offers notes of baked raspberries, warm red currants and aniseed with hints of Sichuan pepper and Chinese five spice. Medium-bodied, soft, plush and seductive in the mouth, it delivers plenty of velvet-lined, berry preserve flavors and a long, spicy finish.”

89 pts “A little reductive at first, this Shiraz and Grenache blend opens to reveal the character of both grape varieties: dark cherry, strawberry, smoked meat and herbs lead into a powerful, full-bodied palate that’s oaky but balanced by plush fruit and fine grained tannins.”

88 pts “Tangy, high-toned raspberry and dried cherry flavors are intense and juicy, with dried herb notes and cola and fresh loam accents. Harmonious on the finish.”
