

2015 KILIKANNOON KILLERMAN'S RUN RIESLING

Review Summary

94 pts “From several high quality vineyards across the Clare Valley. Its bouquet is good, but it’s the palate that gets all the antennae wagging with its ravishing lemon/lime citrus fruit curling through to the long finish.”

James Halliday
Australian Wine Companion
October 6, 2016

92 pts/Editors' Choice/TOP 100 WINES OF 2017 – #73 “A pretty nose of lemongrass, lime leaf and a touch of mint are followed by a mouthwatering palate of wet stone, a chalky texture and a long lemony finish.”

Christina Pickard
Wine Enthusiast
Best of Year 2017

92 pts/Smart Buy “Intense, a succulent mix of peach, lime and lanolin notes. Hints of white flowers and a drizzle of honey add richness without getting in the way of the vibrant acidity.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
Jan. 31 – Feb. 28, 2018

90 pts “Vivid straw. Vibrant grapefruit, green apple and quince scents and flavors, along with a chalky mineral overtone. Dry, nervy and precise, showing very good clarity and cut. Puts on weight with air and finishes long and stony, featuring resonating citrus pith and pear skin qualities.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
October 2017

88 pts “The 2015 Killerman’s Run Riesling sports zingy lemon peel and yuzu zest notes with touches of white pepper and dill seed. The dry, light-bodied palate offers a lot of expressive flavor at this youthful stage with lively but approachable acidity and good length.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
June 2016

Recommended “Lime, green apple, minerality and a whisper of sweet tropical fruit led to a lip-smacking finish.”

Michael Austin
Chicago Tribune
August 16, 2017

