

2004 CHAMPAGNE COLLET BRUT VINTAGE MILLÉSIME

Review Summary

91 pts “This cooperative, situated in Aÿ in the heart of the Montagne de Reims, has produced a rich, structured wine from this fine vintage. It has tension, with a taut mineral character along with excellent white fruit flavor. Even at 11 years, the wine is young and will benefit from some bottle age.”

Roger Voss
Wine Enthusiast
December 2015

90 pts “A blend of chardonnay and pinot noir from premier and grand cru vineyards, this has a fennel-like earthiness darkening the lemon curd and wildflower honey scents. It’s ready to drink, with an apple-cider note showing its maturity.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
December 2016

90 pts “A fresh and balanced version, with hints of juicy pear, ginger biscuit, honey and lemon curd. Easy-drinking, presenting a lightly creamy finish.”

Alison Napjus
Wine Spectator
December 15, 2014