WINEMAKER :	Chester Osborn
REGION :	McLaren Vale, South Australia
VARIETALS :	Grenache (38%), Shiraz (32%), Mourvèdre (30%)
MATURATION :	50% matured in seasoned oak casks for 6 months
ANALYSIS :	14.6% alc/vol TA: 6.3 g/L pH: 3.50

BACKGROUND :

The name 'Stump Jump' relates to the significant South Australian invention – the Stump Jump plough. This plough became a popular piece of machinery for ploughing fields because of its ability to ride over stumps and gnarled “mallee” Eucalypt roots and snags, saving valuable time and resources by not stopping the draught horse.

VINTAGE NOTES :

The season began well with average winter rainfall, summer conditions were significantly warmer than average with two heatwaves through January testing the limits of the vines. Following the heatwave was rain and cool weather, which helped slow down ripening, and allowed flavor development to catch up to sugar ripeness. White wines from this vintage are fruity and very flavorsome, as are reds with ample tannin to match.

TASTING NOTES :

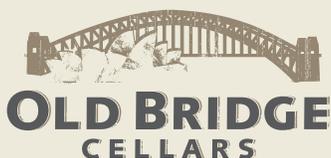

Blackberry, dark cherry, spicy plum, dried currants, straw, walnuts, wet soil, bramble and mushroom aromas and flavors. The palate remains refined and sleek. A mixture of primary and secondary characters offering depth of flavor. Fine acidity and powdery tannins complete the experience adding life and savouriness. This wine is hitting its straps upon release with the potential to be enjoyed for the next 3 to 5 years.

CRITICAL ACCLAIM :

88 pts Wine Spectator

ABOUT d'ARENBERG

One of the undisputed kings of Australian Shiraz and Rhone varietals, d'Arenberg has managed to turn individuality into an art form by doing a whole lot of little things differently. The original vineyards were established by Joseph Osborn in 1912 in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia. A century on, the estate has grown to 345 acres, and the mantle now rests with fourth-generation winemaker Chester Osborn. By maintaining a focus on traditional winemaking and nurturing their old-vine material, the Osborn clan has successfully established themselves as one of the country's leading producers of concentrated, characterful wines. Ranked as one of the Top 100 Wineries and Top Value Brands in the world by Wine & Spirits Magazine in 2013, this reputation is clearly recognized worldwide.
