

2016 d'ARENBERG THE STUMP JUMP WHITE

Review Summary

88 pts/Top 100 Values of the Year “This clean, fresh white is based on riesling and sauvignon blanc, but it’s the small amount of marsanne and roussanne that lend the blend its luscious texture. As round as it feels, the structure captures its juicy weight with smoky, salty firmness. For an oyster pan roast.”

87 pts – Very Good “This pale white gold colored Riesling based blend from Australia opens with a ginger and Asian pear bouquet. On the palate, this wine is light bodied, slight acidic and semi-sweet. The flavor profile is a mineral infused peach and ginger blend with hints of white pepper and pineapple. Its flavors and mild acidity linger and last for quite a while after the wine is gone. I would pair this good value wine with chicken lo-mein.”

87 pts “The 2016 The Stump Jump Riesling / Sauvignon Blanc / Marsanne / Roussanne has pleasant baking spice and honeysuckle scents over a core of honeydew melons and warm pears. Light to medium-bodied, the palate has a rasping backbone of acidity with a pleasant satiny texture and a long, spicy finish.”
