

2009 d'ARENBERG THE GALVO GARAGE Review Summary

93 pts “A blend that duly provides an assemblage of red and black fruits of every description on the bouquet and medium to full-bodied palate. Like so many wines of its vintage, is proving the staying power was originally underestimated.”

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion
2014

91 pts “As expected from a d'Arenberg red, at nearly ten years of age, the 2009 The Galvo Garage Proprietary Red still has plenty to give. It's floral and minty on the nose, then turns to red fruit on the palate. It's full-bodied and showing some supple, creamy texture up until the finish, where the tannins still seem firm.”

Joe Czerwinski, Robert Parker Wine Advocate
September 2018

91 pts “Primarily Cabernet Sauvignon (the balance is Merlot, Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc), this is full bodied, lush and richly textured. Cassis, blackberry, vanilla and tobacco leaf notes give this a convincingly Bordeaux-styled profile, although much riper and plusher.”

Joe Czerwinski, Wine Enthusiast
February 2013

90 pts “Opaque ruby. Expressive aromas of cherry, blackberry and dark chocolate. Sweet, pliant and seamless, with zesty minerality adding lift to its bitter cherry and dark berry flavors. Finishes with gentle, round tannins and very good, tangy persistence.”

Josh Reynolds, Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
July/August 2011

89 pts “Deep garnet-purple in color, it offers notes of creme de cassis and black currant cordial over mint, cloves and pencil shavings and a whiff of cinnamon stick. Ripe, rich and full bodied, it's well structured with a firm level of chewy tannins and gives a long, slightly herbal finish.”
