

2015 d'ARENBERG THE HIGH TRELLIS

Review Summary

92 pts “Blackberries, cassis, dried violets and blackcurrant compote, as well as dried mint and a touch of acacia and dried pine needles. The palate delivers a layered assortment of juicy fruit, succulent yet well-structured tannins and a long, chewy finish.”

90 pts “The structured house style works well with the 2015 The High Trellis Cabernet Sauvignon. Leafy, floral and cassis notes appear on the nose, while the full-bodied palate is firm and concentrated and the finish long and precise. It will drink well for a decade or more.”

89 pts “Tangy berry and plum flavors show accents of kirsch and black pepper, with firm tannins and a heavy dose of fresh green herbs that lingers. The tannins turn rustic on the finish.”
