

2016 GIANT STEPS
YARRA VALLEY PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

93 pts “Exceptional value for money with bing cherry sass, a hint of herb, finely tuned, beguiling tannic detail and a thrust of juicy, crunchy, long-flowing acidity. Burgundian of guile and never slipping into excessive sweetness, this is highly sophisticated for the price.”

90 pts “The nose of this wine is ripe and fruity in notes of plump ripe strawberries, red cherries, flowers and spices. The palate gets a more serious, with a fine line of savory tannins balancing bright red fruit. A long, spicy, mouthwatering finish has you immediately reaching for a second sip.”
