

2015 YERINGBERG
PINOT NOIR
Review Summary

97 pts “A bright, sparkling crimson-purple and enticing; so too the aromas of florals, red fruits and some woody spices, the oak perfectly integrated. It’s deceptive at first at it feels effortless and lighter bodied, which it is, but it builds adding layers of fine tannin, more fruit and cleansing acidity.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
2019

90 pts “Elegant and smooth, on a light frame but showing plenty of power, offering notes of charred rosemary and smoke that mingle with cherry and raspberry fruit at the core.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
WineSpectator.com
2019