

2017 GREYWACKE SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

GREYWACKE

Kevin Judd

90 pts “The 2017 Sauvignon Blanc has a fresh gooseberry and Granny Smith apple bouquet with a hint of undergrowth in the background. The well-balanced palate displays a crisp line of acidity and a touch of bitter lemon that counters what feels like a comparatively rich finish for a young Sauvignon Blanc. This is just packed with flavor.”

90 pts “A wallflower when compared to other, more aggressively aromatic Kiwi Sauvignon Blancs, this wine offers hints of citrus, stone fruit, flowers and grass on the nose. The palate is of most interest here: It’s linear and chalky yet slippery in feel, with a fair lick of acidity that’s just barely balanced by fruit and florals.”

90 pts – Very Good+ “This almost clear colored Sauvignon Blanc always seems to shine in our blind tasting. It opens with an attractive mild gooseberry bouquet with a hint of tomato leaf and lemon grass. On the palate, this wine is light bodied, nicely balanced and has a round mouthfeel. The flavor profile is a very tasty gentle lime and ripe red ruby grapefruit with a hint of lemon and white pepper. The finish is dry and its flavors are nicely prolonged. The Panel suggested pairing this very good Sauvignon Blanc with seared scallops over Brussel sprouts.”

90 pts “This mineral infused Sauvignon Blanc offers an intriguing floral/herbal nose and a stony palate of lime and lemon that persists on a long, focused finish. A well-balanced, vivacious wine.”

89 pts “Kevin Judd’s 2017 Sauvignon Blanc features just-right touches of greenness, suggesting snow pea pods and cut grass. Those notes complement white grapefruit and tart pineapple flavors. This seems a bit lightweight and lean in style for Greywacke, but it’s still expressive, clean and correct, with a refreshing finish.”
