

2016 LEEUWIN ESTATE PRELUDE VINEYARDS CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Review Summary

94 pts/Editor's Choice "This red draws cassis, currant, eucalyptus, dried violet, tobacco and graphite into a satiny texture and fine, elegantly structured tannins. It's juicy, medium in weight, long at the finish, classic Margaret River and unmistakably Leeuwin."

92 pts/Year's Best Margaret River "This brisk cabernet captures the scent of the jarrah forest along the Margaret River coast, a cool, herbal and earthy savor that pervades its tart flavors of plum and strawberry. The tannins are tight, with the sleekness of pencil lead, carrying the fruit without getting in the way. Pour it with lacquered duck."

89 pts "Blueberry and cherry flavors are vibrant and fresh, with accents of vanilla, toasted cumin and espresso. The tannins are thick, firming up on the finish and showing plenty of charm to accompany the chewiness."
