

2015 d'ARENBERG THE GALVO GARAGE

Review Summary

92 pts “It’s big and intensely flavored, laden with spiced plums, blackberry essence with bitter chocolate and cedary oak flavors. Full-bodied with no shortage of ripe tannins, elegant it ain’t but this has come together well.”

Jane Faulkner
Halliday Wine Companion
2020

92 pts “Earthy and spicy red with black and green-olive aromas and lots of dark fruit, too. Full body, soft and velvety tannins and a juicy finish.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
June 26, 2019

88 pts “Violets, roasted capsicum and cassis all vie on the nose of d'Arenberg's 2015 The Galvo Garage, a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot and Merlot. It's medium to full-bodied and round in the mouth, even if it lacks a bit of density and richness on the mid-palate. Although it could age up to a decade (like all of the d'Arenberg reds), I'd opt for drinking it over the next few years.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
May 14, 2020