

2015 d'ARENBERG THE TWENTYEIGHT ROAD

Review Summary

90 pts “D'Arenberg's 2015 The Twenty Eight Road Mourvedre nails the variety's trademark aromas of dark fruit, tree bark and spice. It's full-bodied and sturdily built but not hard or astringent, with rich, velvety tannins and enticing hints of licorice and dark chocolate on the finish.”

90 pts “Savory, persistent, bordering on green, tannins didn't deter the judges at the McLaren Vale Wine Show '17. I think I understand why - namely the depth of varietal fruit, but the tannins need to relax their stranglehold on the palate.”
