

2018 GIANT STEPS WOMBAT VINEYARD PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

97 pts “Wow. This is complex and structured with dried strawberries and fresh flowers. Full body. Wonderful depth and intensity. The texture is so impressive. Give it time, but hard not to drink it.”

Nick Stock
James Suckling.com
June 26, 2019

94 pts “Powerful yet restrained, offering creamy notes of fresh wild strawberry, red licorice, toasted cumin and violet. The complexity and detail keeps gaining momentum on the long, expressive finish, where accents of white truffle and spice linger. Drink now through 2036.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
December 15, 2019

94 pts “Powerful yet restrained, offering creamy notes of fresh wild strawberry, red licorice, toasted cumin and violet. The complexity and detail keeps gaining momentum on the long, expressive finish, where accents of white truffle and spice linger. Drink now through 2036.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
December 15, 2019

93 pts “Floral, slightly whole-bunchy and even tea-like on the nose, the 2018 Wombat Creek Vineyard Pinot Noir is stunningly complex, adding elements of tart red fruits to the mix. Cranberries and pomegranate seeds join cherries in this medium-bodied, silky-textured beauty. While delicate, it seems to have the requisite concentration for up to a decade of aging.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
May 14, 2020