

2017 GREG NORMAN ESTATES PASO ROBLES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

WINEMAKER: Bill Nancarrow
REGION: Paso Robles, California
VARIETALS: Cabernet Sauvignon
MATURATION: 18 months in seasoned French oak
ALCOHOL: 13.9% alc/vol

REGION: Paso Robles is located between San Francisco and Los Angeles along California's Central Coast. The region enjoys a greater day-to-night temperature swing than any other major appellation in California. With many distinct microclimates, more than 45 different soil types and a long growing season, Paso Robles is well suited to producing a range of premium wines, in particular structured and juicy Cabernets.

WINEMAKING: After a gentle destemming process, the fruit was fermented for up to ten days in stainless-steel, open-top tanks and pumped over three times a day. The dry wine was then pressed off skins and transferred to seasoned French oak to mature before blending the individual Cabernet Sauvignon lots and bottling.

TASTING NOTES: Inviting aromas of fresh blackberries and plums with all-spice notes. The palate is rich and generous with layers of ripe juicy fruit flavors complemented by vanilla, tobacco leaf and cinnamon spice. Smooth tannins and a refreshing line of acidity bring structure and balance to this versatile Cabernet Sauvignon.
