

2018 CULLEN DANCING IN THE SUN SEMILLON SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

92 pts/BEST BUY “This is a dry-grown blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon (with a little bit of Verdelho) from Vanya Cullen’s biodynamically farmed vineyard near the coast in Wilyabrup. There’s no oak to get in the way of this wine’s lovely fruit, the crunchy nectarine and kumquat flavors held tight, with a whisper of underlying creaminess at the liminal space between the earth and the sea.”

91 pts “Tropical fruits but not too overt, lots of green herb and saline character too, a dose of green apple and citrus. It’s pleasant and pretty in scent. Crystal clear fruit flavors to taste, a little lilt of grassiness, some tang of green apple, a slip of sweet tropical fruits. Cool and fresh, easy to drink, vital and delicious. Nice one.”

89 pts “This is a delicate and approachable blend of 54% Semillon, 43% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Verdelho from one of Australia’s biodynamic rock stars. The tree fruit, pineapple, grass and dried herbal characters tiptoe across the tongue amid a texture that is both chalky and slippery, popping with prickly acidity and begging to be sipped, as the name suggests, while making merry in the summer sunshine.”

88 pts “A blend of 54% Semillon, 43% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Verdelho, the 2018 Dancing in the Sun is entirely fermented and matured in stainless steel. It’s a plump, medium-bodied wine with aromas and flavors of pear and fig, with hints of apple skin and citrus zest on a lengthy finish.”
