

2018 KILIKANOON MORT'S BLOCK RIESLING

Review Summary

95 pts/Gold Medal “Pristine, elegant poised white spice, key lime pie and lifted floral aromas lead to a citrus palate laced with a white pepper, green olive and herbal lift.”

Decanter World Wine Awards

94 pts “Aromas of frangipani, talc and citrus blossom. Wow. Already stacked with flavors, ripe lime and a tropical note here and there. All yours whenever you want.”

91 pts/Editors' Choice “An austere and classical Clare Riesling gently humming a medley of petrol, flower blossoms, ginger, white spice, orange peel, lemon and chalk dust. Bone-dry, the palate slices with laser-sharp acidity amid a powdery texture and a long, citrusy finish. This should really shine with another few years in the bottle, and what a bargain, too.”

91 pts “Subtle and spicy with some tinned-pear and mineral aromas and flavors and hints of rose blossom. Medium body. Crisp finish.”
