

2017 d'ARENBERG THE STUMP JUMP SHIRAZ

Review Summary

89 pts/#74 TOP 100 BEST BUY 2020 “d’Arenberg’s cherry-hued Shiraz is a balanced, medium-bodied weeknight sipper. It’s open and fragranced, like a bowl of freshly picked cherries, raspberries and strawberries. There’s a line of baking spices, dried rose and ground black pepper that make this more than just a fruit bomb, however. Lifted acidity makes the fruit feel fresh, even a touch sour at the finish. Tannins are spicy and structured, and the texture is silky. Drink now with a slice of pizza in hand.”

GOOD VALUE “A robust shiraz with some brash herbal notes to its dark fruit, this is built for brisket.”
