

2019 BROKENWOOD HUNTER VALLEY SEMILLON

Review Summary

BROKENWOOD

AUSTRALIAN CRAFT AT ITS FINEST

95 pts “Has a little bit extra to the fruit line. While still speaking to the classic lemon-accented aromas and flavors, there is an extra edge of lemon/passionfruit sorbet. The drinking window will remain open for as long as you wish.”

James Halliday
Halliday Wine Companion
December 2019

93 pts “This delicate and slightly green-tinged Semillon is made by one of the Hunter’s most renowned estates. Fresh and youthful, it bounces with aromas of fresh flower blossoms, lemon and lime leaf. In the mouth, Semillon’s typically waxy texture and citrus oil notes are tempered by crisp acidity.”

Christina Pickard
Wine Enthusiast
August 12, 2020

90 pts “Juicy and succulent, with notes of lemon curd, lemongrass, peach and yellow raisin that have a slightly waxy texture and plenty of oomph on the long, expressive finish, where a touch of dried pineapple lingers.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
November 15, 2020

88 pts “The latest releases from Brokenwood include the brand-new 2019 Semillon. It’s a pale, green-inflected straw color in the glass, with herbal scents, plus hints of lime and crushed stone. Light to medium-bodied, expect it to add gravitas over the next few years, but I’d opt for drinking it while young and fresh. Enjoy this dry, citrusy wine with oysters or Little Neck clams on the half shell over the summer months.”

Joe Czerwinski
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
May 14, 2020