

2017 YERINGBERG PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

95 pts “This has attractively fresh red cherries and beautifully pure and fragrant perfume. The palate is fleshy, supple and so deliciously fresh. A superb pinot from Yeringberg, one of their finest recent vintages.”

Nick Stock
JamesSuckling.com
June 26, 2019

93 pts “Always a solid wine, this is no exception. Asian plum, root spice and orange rind meander across a plump core, gently defined by a sluice of grape tannin and well-appointed oak cladding (40% new, 18 months).”

Ned Goodwin
Halliday Wine Companion
August 1, 2020

92 pts “Medium to full red colour with a trace of purple. The bouquet shows chocolate, vanilla, raspberry and red cherry. Hints of sarsaparilla; a suggestion of mint. The wine is medium-bodied and firm, lean and elegant, with tension and persistence, the tannins adding a touch of firmness that is in good harmony. Fruit rather than artifact drives it. Very attractive.”

Huon Hooke
The Real Review
March 25, 2020