

2018 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ MORGON 'CÔTE DU PY'

Review Summary

91 pts/BEST BUY “A rustic Burgundy pleasure, this wine rests its meaty black-raspberry flavors on a cushion of mineral tannins. Those tannins add briskness to the wine’s generous depth of fruit.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2020

90 pts “This bright, light- to medium-bodied red offers a creamy mix of ripe raspberry, peach and currant notes accented by charming and aromatic rose petal, tangerine zest and spice flavors. Undertones of granite, anise and herb sail along into the finish.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
November 15, 2020

90 pts “The 2018 Morgon Côte du Py offers up generous aromas of cherries, licorice and subtle hints of smoked meats, followed by a medium to full-bodied, fleshy palate framed by ripe acids and powdery tannins. This is quite a characterful, tasty wine from Maison L'Envoyé, enlivened by a discreet touch of dissolved carbon dioxide.”

William Kelley
Robert Parker Wine Advocate
October 15, 2020