

2018 YERINGBERG CHARDONNAY

Review Summary

92 pts “I like the relaxed nature of this, an effortless confluence of apricot, white peach and stone fruit references across a swathe of vanilla-pod oak and a spurt of acidity. The core, nutty and nougatine. Ample flavour and a thankful tangent away from excessive reduction.”

Ned Goodwin
Halliday Wine Companion
August 1, 2020

90 pts “Apple, peach and citrus flavors are bright and juicy on a sleek frame, with details of white flowers and orange zest on the finish, a touch of sweet cream emerging.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
December 31, 2020