

2018 CULLEN DANCING IN THE SUN SEMILLON SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

92 pts/TOP 100 BEST BUYS “This is a dry-grown blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon (with a little bit of Verdelho) from Vanya Cullen’s biodynamically farmed vineyard near the coast in Wilyabrup. There’s no oak to get in the way of this wine’s lovely fruit, the crunchy nectarine and kumquat flavors held tight, with a whisper of underlying creaminess at the liminal space between the earth and the sea.”

92 pts “Medium to light straw colour - still youthful. The bouquet is driven by dried herbs, cedar and just a smidgen of snow pea, but it successfully avoids overt green aromas. Very good intensity and drive, power and length, with an extra degree of concentration over its peers. Long finish. A top example of the style. Just a smidgen of acetone at first sniff, presumably from the wild ferment. It responds well to some aeration.”

91 pts “Very fruit-focused with lemons and peaches, fused to grassy and herbal aromas. The palate has smooth, glossy texture and delivers plenty of citrus and stone-fruit flavors. A blend of 54% semillon, 43% sauvignon blanc and 3% verdelho. From biodynamically grown grapes.”

91 pts “Tropical fruits but not too overt, lots of green herb and saline character too, a dose of green apple and citrus. It’s pleasant and pretty in scent. Crystal clear fruit flavors to taste, a little lilt of grassiness, some tang of green apple, a slip of sweet tropical fruits. Cool and fresh, easy to drink, vital and delicious. Nice one.”

89 pts “This is a delicate and approachable blend of 54% Semillon, 43% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Verdelho from one of Australia’s biodynamic rock stars. The tree fruit, pineapple, grass and dried herbal characters tiptoe across the tongue amid a texture that is both chalky and slippery, popping with prickly acidity and begging to be sipped, as the name suggests, while making merry in the summer sunshine.”

88 pts “A blend of 54% Semillon, 43% Sauvignon Blanc and 3% Verdelho, the 2018 Dancing in the Sun is entirely fermented and matured in stainless steel. It’s a plump, medium-bodied wine with aromas and flavors of pear and fig, with hints of apple skin and citrus zest on a lengthy finish.”

88 pts/TOP VALUE “Offers a satisfying mix of peach, pear and crisp citrus notes, set on a medium body, with details of dried flowers, toasted fennel and litsea oil. Sémillon, Sauvignon Blanc and Verdelho.”
