

2019 LEEUWIN ESTATE SIBLINGS SAUVIGNON BLANC

Review Summary

92 pts “THE SMART BUY Classic lifted, pungent aromas of freshly cut grass and herbs, with an exotic lemongrass twist. These follow through on the lively palate, joined by mouthwatering lemon, lime and grapefruit with a pop of pea pod. A barrel-fermented and lees-aged component (30%) and splash of Semillon (7%) enhances structure and texture, with talc and asparagus nuances. Versatile and food friendly.”

91 pts/TOP VALUE “Fresh and succulent, with complex and generous flavors of peach, dried pineapple and lemon sherbet. The finish is crisp and harmonious.”

90 pts “In typical Leeuwin style, this Sauvignon is approachable—but not simple—textural and exuberant. Ripe and fruity, it bursts from the glass with aromas of peach, pineapple and lemon, backed by grass and white spice, particularly as it warms in glass. The slippery pal-ate shows off more lemon peel and white pepper flavors, with a citrusy zing right through to the finish.”

90 pts “This has a bright array of fresh peaches and melon with more tropical notes, too. The palate offers a sleek, crunchy feel with vibrant, attractively focused fruit flavors.”

89 pts “Machine-harvested at night, immediately pressed and bottom racked off lees, cultured yeast, stainless steel-fermented, the best parcels used for this wine.”
