

2019 JOHN DUVAL WINES ENTITY SHIRAZ

Review Summary

94 pts “Powerful, vibrant and fragrant, with dried lavender, Earl Grey, dried oregano, five-spice power and dark chocolate aromatics to mingle with the core of velvety smooth plum, black cherry and wild blackberry flavors. The tannins firm up appealingly on the finish, which goes on and on.”

MaryAnn Worobiec
Wine Spectator
April 28, 2021

93 pts “Very deep, youthful purple-crimson colour which stains the glass. There are nutmeg, almond and pepper overtones to the bouquet and the wine is full-bodied and firmly-structured, with lashings of supple, approachable tannins. Stewed blood plums. A blood-and-thunder shiraz, with plenty of life ahead of it.”

Huon Hooke
The Real Review
March 12, 2021