

2019 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ MORGON 'CÔTE DU PY'

Review Summary

92 pts “Vivid ruby. Spice-accented aromas of cherry, black raspberry and candied licorice, plus a floral accent in the background. Shows fine clarity and spicy lift to the bitter cherry and dark berry flavors, which deepen as the wine opens up. Finishes on a subtly chewy note, with firm, spicy thrust, broad tannins and very good persistence.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
August 24, 2021

90 pts “Lovely aromas and flavors of crème de cassis, violet, ripe cherry and woody spice are on full display in this charming, medium-bodied red, framed by refined tannins.”

Alison Napjus
Wine Spectator
December 15, 2021